

Firewall and Router Setup

THE INFORMATION IN THIS ARTICLE APPLIES TO:

- not GlobalSCAPE product specific

DISCUSSION

Firewalls and Routers

- Windows Firewall Configuration for use with CuteFTP
- The New Windows Firewall in Windows Vista
- Basic Windows XP Firewall Configuration for use with an FTP server
- Free help setting up your router or firewall - provided by PortForward.com
- Using CuteFTP with Norton Internet Security 2005
- Help for Linksys Routers: Setting Up an FTP Server behind a Linksys Router
- Windows Firewall with Advanced Security
- Help for NetGear Routers: How Do I Make an FTP Server on My Private LAN Visible to the Internet?
- How Firewalls Work
- Help for D-Link Routers: How can I host an FTP Server behind my router?
- Firewalls FAQ

If your equipment is not listed here, refer to the manufacturer's Web site for special configuration information.

Troubleshooting Tools and Technical References

- Determine your IP Address
- IANA Port Assignments
- RFC 1579 - Firewall-Friendly FTP
- RFC 1123 - Requirements for Internet Hosts - Application and Support

Manufacturer Web Sites for Software Firewall Packages

- Symantec \(Norton\) Support Site
- McAfee Support Site
- Microsoft has complete instructions on how to configure the Windows Firewall (formerly Internet Connection Firewall) which is built-in to Windows XP, SP2. Click here for more

Firewall and Router Setup

information.

GlobalSCAPE Knowledge Base

<https://kb.globalscape.com/KnowledgebaseArticle10133.aspx>